NEWS LETTER

The Regency Times
I Term 2014 - 2015

From the Principal's desk

Hello everyone,

It is nice to speak to all of you through this newsletter. We have had an eventful first term and you are going to get to know the happenings in the next few pages. Happy reading!

As parents you crave the best for your children at all times. The parents, Teachers and the school management complement each other to give the best for your child.

"Education is our passport to the future, for tomorrow belongs to the people who prepare for it today." – Malcolm X

At Regency, we prepare your children today for tomorrow! We have created an atmosphere of reverence for education and a healthy environment for work, sports and extracurricular activities. We aim at all round development of the children and hence they are exposed to a variety of learning experiences.

A large part of the active life of your child is spent in the school. So it becomes imperative for us to make it meaningful, fun and rewarding!

I take this opportunity to request you to spend a minimum of fifteen minutes everyday with your child discussing the school day. Just helping in the completion of homework is not enough. Be a friend to your child and make him/her a part of your decision making process! Also I request you to see that the child comes on time to school, dressed impeccably in proper uniform.

Please make yourself free to attend all the parent teacher meetings. You are welcome to meet the teachers to discuss any important matter. If there is any change in the telephone number or address it is important for you to intimate the school immediately especially now, in the wake of security measures that the school has to follow.

Please encourage your child to participate in as many activities as possible, so that he/she can have an enriching experience during his/her stay in Regency!

Wishing you all a safe and happy festive season!

Until we meet again.

Usha Ravi

The Regency Times – 2014-2015

26th May -2014: The 26th of April declared the end of cozy summer vacation while the blazing sun insisted it was still summer and fumed with fury. The students of VIII to X shrugged away the heat and trudged along merrily, full of joy and mirth to be back in school with friends and teachers alike.

At TRPS, we start where we are, use what we have and do the best we can. In accordance with this the best of trainers are brought to our campus for various 'in service programmes.'

Team work leads to many a perk

No sooner said than done

On the 26th itself there was a workshop for teachers. It was conducted by Trainer Ms. Rajathi Subramanyam. The session was entitled 'Marching towards Excellence.'. Rajathi's firm conviction was that in order to succeed in any profession, one must cultivate the right attitude and the required skills. As the session progressed the teachers could identify the various problems that they encountered in class and relate it to her version of theory. Many solutions were derived at and there was a general feeling of having learnt something useful. Kudos to the young trainer whose chirpy and humourous way of presentation made the workshop that much more fun!

We are here to learn!

28th June -2014 : The Karadi Path conducted a workshop on training and accreditation. The presenters focused on skills like listening, comprehending, reading and creative thinking.

21st June 2014: A workshop was conducted for the parents of our outgoing students by trainer Ms. Fathima. The session was very interactive. The trainer spoke to the parents about the importance of the students building up a good connectivity and rapport with their parents. She emphasized the fact that the child should be accepted for what he or she was without any reservations. The parents were very happy and found the session very beneficial.

31st June-2014 : 'Educational Initiatives' conducted a workshop for our teachers related to the ASSET diagnostic test that they conduct in English, Math and Science. The resource person briefed the teachers on how to analyze the students' skill, identify the weak areas, to clear all misconceptions and also how to help them to improve and do better.

Interact and involve, to find solutions and solve!

Parents should meet their wards half way!

On the same day 'The Grey Caps' conducted a workshop for our teachers. Ms. Rasika was the resource person.

26th July : Asset workshop for English and Math teachers was conducted by resource person Ms. Kishmeet Kaur.

Here is a glance of the Kinder Kaleidoscope: On the 4th of June it was the turn of the Pre-Nursery and Kindergarten toddlers to be back in school. The little ones seemed to be a little apprehensive but soon settled down in a day or two.

The activities that are conducted here are very innovative, Creative play is like a spring that bubbles up from deep within a child' The following are the activities conducted during the first term.

18th July 2014 : There is a garden in every child, an enchanted place where colours are brighter, the air softer and the morning more fragrant than ever. So dawned the colours day on the 18th of July. The students learn that the primary colours form the radiance of life. The Nursery section was allotted the Red colour, Prep I the blue colour and Prep II the yellow colour. The entire day was spent on doing activities pertaining to the allotted colours. At an assembly arranged for the tiny tots, the little ones sang songs related to colours.

We don't need a toy to enjoy!

25th July 2014: The class room atmosphere is very cozy and comfortable to teach the three 'R's no doubt but knowledge gets embedded in the child's heart only through experimenting personally. As Walt Streightiff once said - There are no seven wonders of the world in the eyes of a child.

There are seven million. Our little students were taken on a field trip to J. P. Park to get first hand knowledge of certain things that they had learnt in class.

13th August: A special assembly was held in view of the approaching Independence day. The little ones began with an invocation song, followed by a welcome speech by Kena Prasad G K of Prep II A. Atharva of Prep II B spoke a few words about Independence day. The following programmes were presented

Nursery : Fancy dress – students came dressed as National leaders

Prep I : Presented patriotic songs in English. Their dress code was that of Tiranga.

Prep II : Presented patriotic dances performed to the melody of patriotic songs.

Happy Independence Day !

To wind up the event, Ankit Krishna Srinivas of Prep II A gave the vote of thanks. Thus our students are exposed to patriotism and know to a certain extent that the life that we lead today is a hard earned gift that was passed on to us from our ancestors.

The second week of September was observed as the Salad week in the kindergarten section. Students learnt that fruits and vegetables are good for health. They got into teams and with the help of teachers made salad. The entire staff of the school were treated with delicious salad.

Serve salad saliently!

Grandparents Day

The Regency family welcomes you!

“Grand parents are a delightful blend of Laughter, Caring deeds, wonderful stories and love!”

To acknowledge grandparent's generous contribution in the lives of our little toddlers we observe grandparents day every September. This year it was held on 13th Sept. Our students captivated their grand parents with their splendid performance. As part of the program they danced to melodious songs; they sang songs in praise of them and played various games with them . We are proud to say that we had a high attendance at the occasion. We will be back next session with more inputs through our Kinder Kaleidoscope recreation
